Ready, Respectful and Safe

Issue 19: Thursday 18th July 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

We have had another incredible year! Our highlights include:

- Embracing three new school rules: Ready, Respectful and Safe and a new vision,
- Running the Daily Mile with the Secretary of State of Health,
- School visits including Westminster Abbey, Imperial War Museum, City Hall, Tate Britain, Museum of London, Royal Festival Hall, Lyric Theatre, London Zoo, The London Transport Museum, Proms Praise for Schools at The Royal Albert Hall, Battersea Zoo and Downing Street,
- Our services at St Stephen with St John, especially our joint service with St Matthew's School,
- Remembrance service with the Chelsea Pensioners and members of the Armed Forces,
- Christingle and Nine Lessons,
- Our Curriculum weeks: Book Week, Science Week, Friendship Week
- OFSTED!
- Sports Days at Battersea Park and at Vincent Square
- Spanish Day
- The Garden Project
- The Times Table 'Slam'
- Angela Burdett-Coutts Day
- PGL – Year 6 school journey experience,
- And who could forget – the Summer Fair!

We say goodbye to our fabulous Year 6 pupils who are moving to:

- Grey Coat Hospital School
- Pimlico Academy
- Westminster City School

- Oasis Academy
- London Nautical
- Marylebone Boys
- Deptford High School
- St Augustine's High School
- Italia Conti
- St Thomas the Apostle
- St Thomas Moore
- Cyprus Boarding School
- Paddington Academy
- Maria Fidelis Catholic School
- Marylebone Girls

Staff who are leaving

We are very sad when staff leave our school community. This year the following staff will be leaving:

Teachers

Mr Maragh – End of contract
Miss Henning – Moving to New Zealand
Miss Talbot – Moving to Abu Dhabi

Support Staff

We also say goodbye to Ms Rusdhie Kurti

They have been incredible staff who have given over and above 100% to the children. We wish them well and every continued success.

Staffing 2019 – 2020

Years 1 – 6 pupils met with their new class teacher and support staff members on Wednesday afternoon. From September, our classrooms are named after Scientists!
