Absent: EYFS, Year 6.

1. Playground Charter

- a. Discussed the articles in the convention document.
- b. Discussed the classroom charters and the need for a playground charter.
- c. Discussed in pairs and small groups which articles would be best suited for a playground charter.
- d. Voted on each article to find the 6 most popular articles:
 - 15, 31, 24, 37, 38, 39.
- e. 3 children commented that the article linked to war wasn't really relevant (38).
- f. Eyobe suggested we do not include article 24 but this was voted to stay in.
- g. Rico suggested we include article 30 and this was agreed.
- h. Eyobe suggested we include article 12 and this was also agreed.
- i. Mrs Camplin suggested we include article 19 instead of 37 as it encompasses bullying. This was agreed.
- j. Final agreed articles:
 - 15, 24, 31, 19, 12, 39

2. Next meeting agenda item:

- Introducing games from around the world. The children of the steering group will be the ambassadors and support the rest of the school in using the game ideas to facilitate playtimes.

3. AOB: Miss Mohammed to meet with steering group members separately to gain ideas for forthcoming fundraising event

4. Meeting concluded at 13:27
