

Funded by

Department for Education

Primary Bullying Intervention Training

This is to certify that

Burdett-Coutts and Townshend Foundation School has successfully completed Kidscape's Primary Bullying Intervention Training and is awarded Primary BIT in recognition of its work to prevent bullying

Carolyn Choong

Carolyn Choong, Primary BIT Project Manager

December 2015

Date

Primary Bullying Intervention
Training

Primary BIT is a Department for Education funded project which provides free support and early intervention anti-bullying training to professionals and children in London.

BIT enables primary schools to prevent bullying by enhancing professionals' skills and knowledge in recognising and tackling bullying, as well as improving pupil relationships, confidence and resilience.

www.kidscape.org.uk/bit